Amici

Arr. by C. Van Iderstine

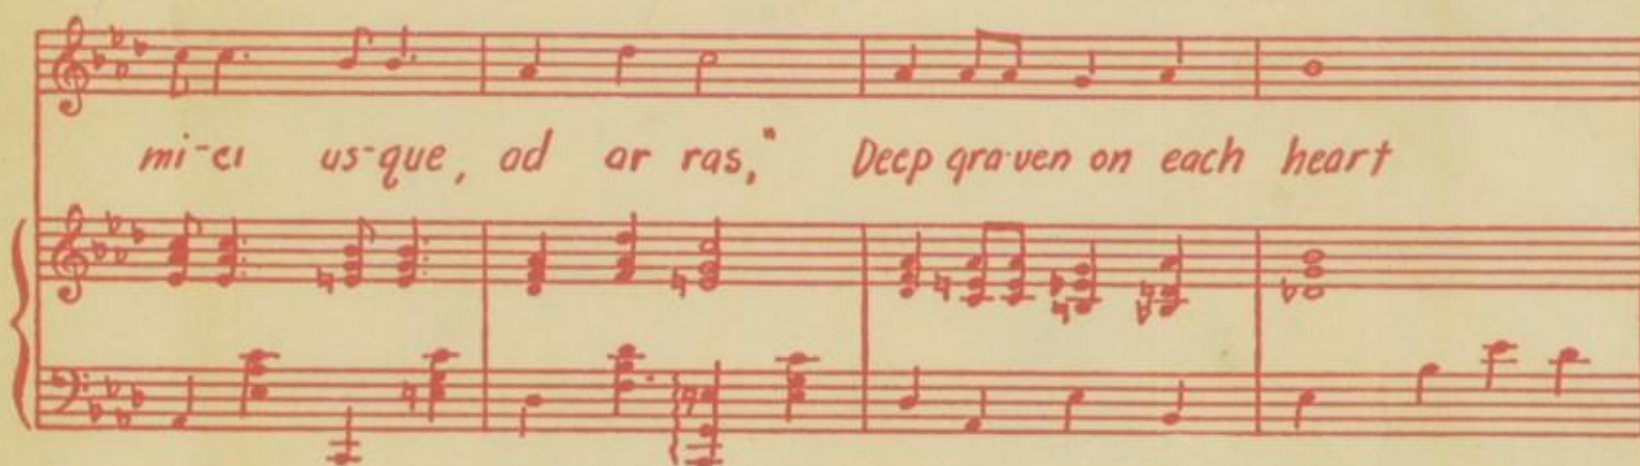

Our strong band can-never be bro-ken, Formed in Rut-land High

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Amici'. It consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass staves). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Far sur-pas sing wealth un-spo-ken, Seal'd by friend-ship's tie. "A-

The second system of musical notation. It continues the vocal and piano parts from the first system. The lyrics continue below the vocal line.

mi-ci us-que, ad ar ras," Deep graven on each heart

The third system of musical notation. It continues the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics continue below the vocal line.

Shall be found un-wave-ring true, When we from life shall part.

The fourth and final system of musical notation on this page. It concludes the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics conclude below the vocal line.

Presenting the twelfth volume

The

Talisman

1941

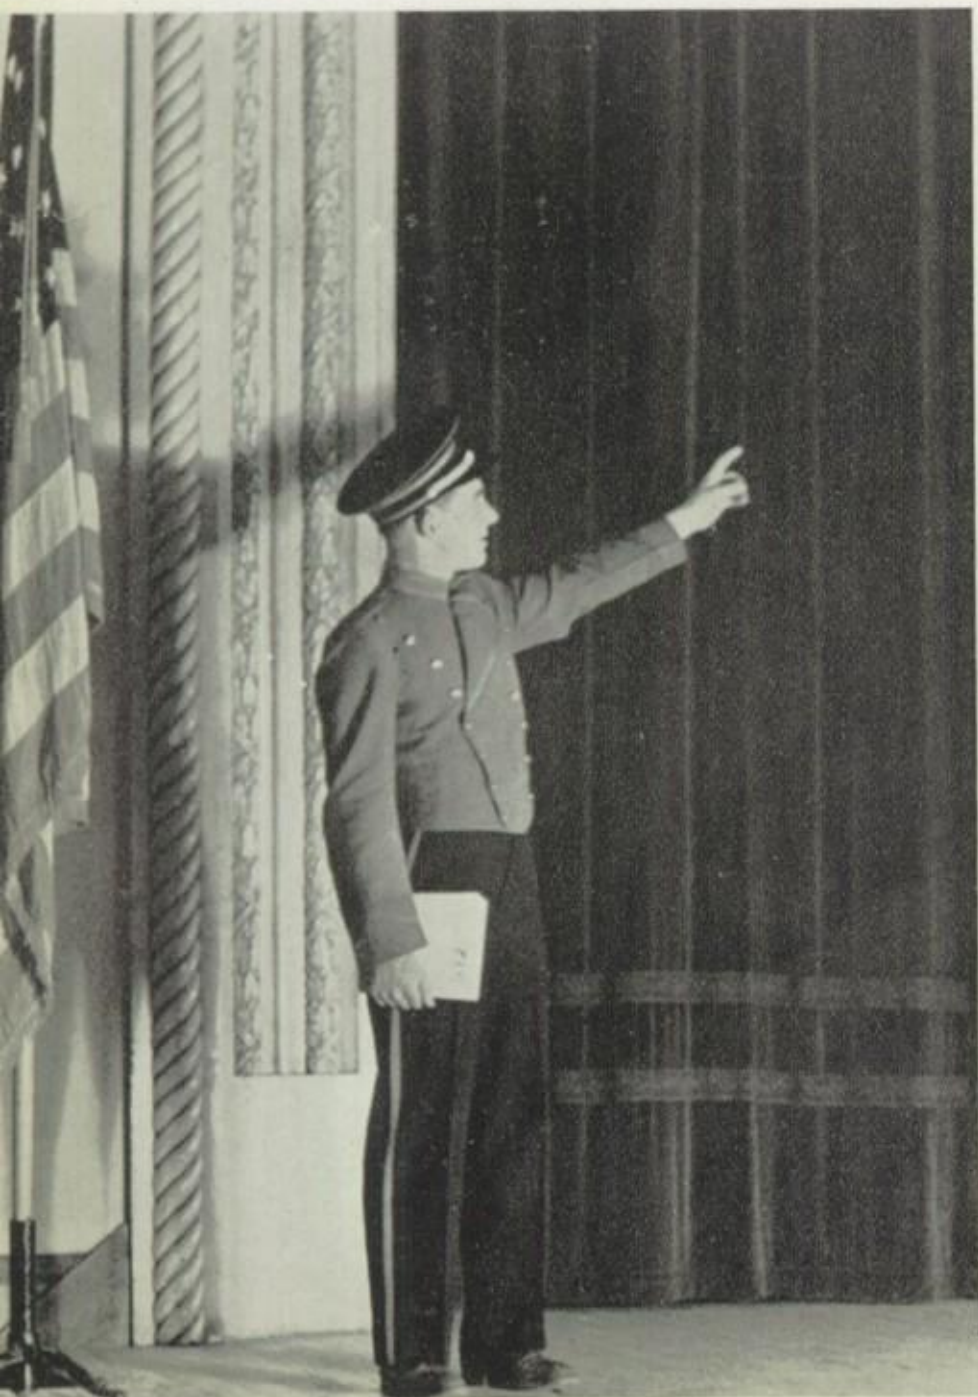

FILMED AND PRODUCED BY THE TALISMAN BOARD

Foreword

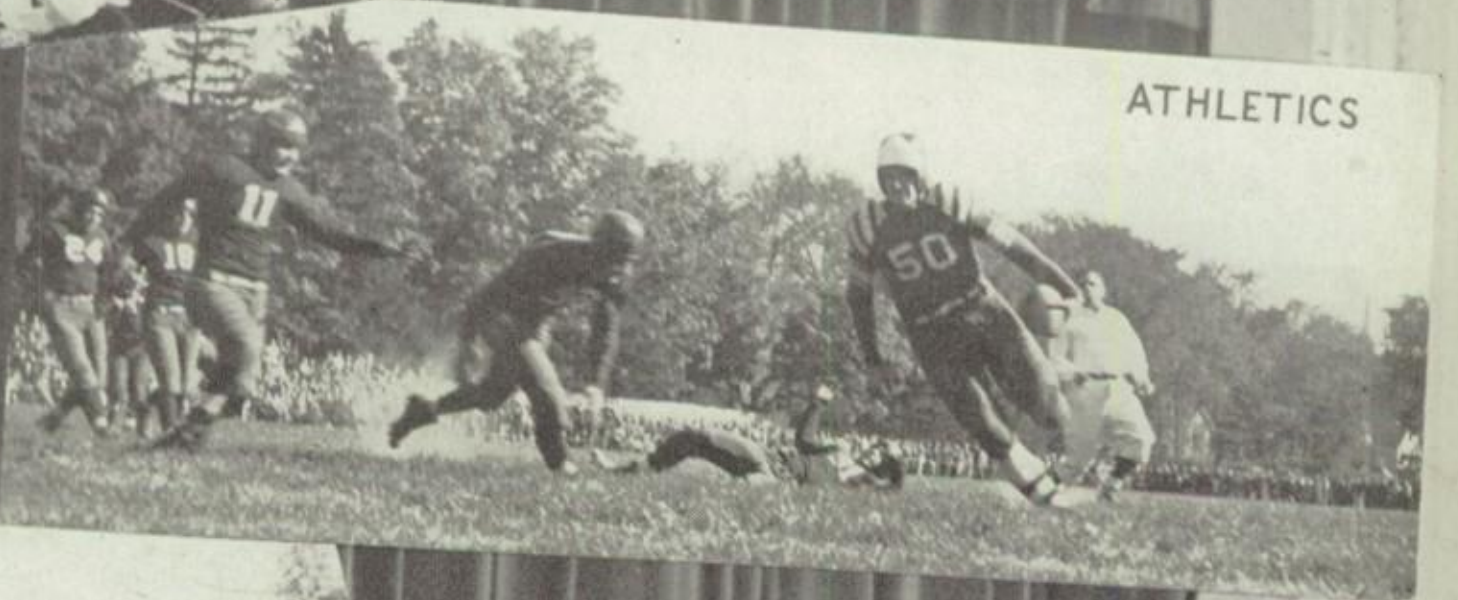

Just as our motion picture industry recognizes one supreme dictator—the box-office, we, your Talisman staff, have tried to cater graphically to our box-office—you, the students of Rutland High School, and especially to you members of the class of 1941.

We trust our panoramic view of your high school career will serve to vivify your memories, and with this hope we present to you the twelfth “Talisman.”

“OUR PROGRAM”

PREVIEWS

Dedication

This book has been dedicated to

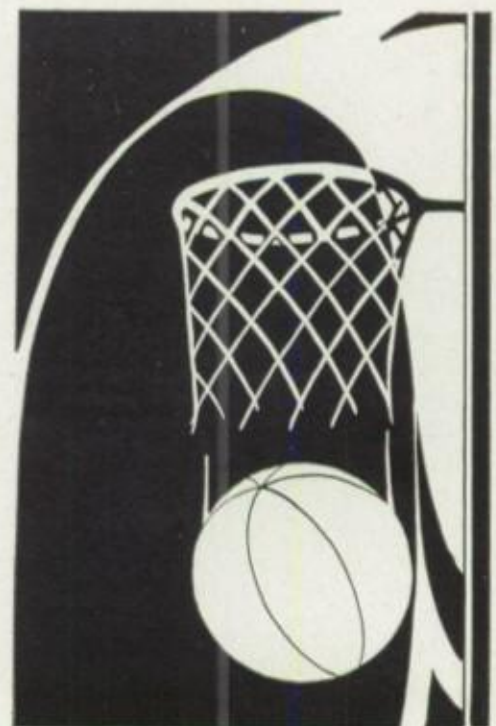

MR. JOHN A. DAVIS

a coach, teacher and friend

whose ideals

of sportsmanship and character

are a splendid incentive to us.

Scenario Writers...

Robert Harrington, Editor-in-Chief, Vivian DePasquale, Gardner Hopwood, Beverly Woods, Jane Pratt, Arthur White, Mary Manney, Leonard Wing, Mary Louise Spaulding.

The 1941 editorial staff of the Talisman attributes the success of this book:

to our Faculty Advisers for their personal interest and invaluable suggestions in the publication of this yearbook;

to the Student Body for cooperation and loyal support;

and to those to whom the Class of 1941 means most, our fathers and mothers.

ROBERT HARRINGTON,
Editor-in-Chief.

Financial Directors...

Beverly Murray, Business Manager, Clinton Fiske, Ruth Sabin, Janet Brown, Richard Seward, Diana Wood, Alfred Flory, Robert Cassin, Leslie Lawton.

The Business Board of the 1941 Talisman wishes to thank the advertisers; also the faculty advisers, and all others who have ensured the success of this annual.

It has been a pleasure publishing it.

We hope you'll enjoy many pleasant hours with your memories.

BEVERLY MURRAY,
Business Manager.

SUPERINTENDENT OF RUTLAND SCHOOLS

THE PRICE OF LIBERTY

. . . so the class of 1941 finds a world in turmoil with a few scheming men trying to hijack the rest of us. Our way of life will be continued if our courage is high, our intelligence profound and our determination without limit. We may have to sacrifice many of our comforts and devote ourselves without stint to our country's cause but such a price is not too high to pay for liberty. I have faith to believe that you will make any sacrifice necessary for the preservation of freedom.

W.W. Fairchild

and Stage Managers...

PRINCIPAL OF RUTLAND HIGH SCHOOL

ARE YOU READY?

To you the class of 1941 comes the privilege of graduating from a four year training course at a time when the country needs leaders and workers.

You may never surprise the world that is waiting expectantly for leaders, and you may never have your name in print, but like the bicycle rider going up hill at night, you keep on because you cannot see how steep the hill is ahead.

On graduation day the world may not be waiting for you, but it is ready to make a place for you if you want it. Opportunity knocks every day, but you must be ready when the door opens.

If I could pass on one thing to you on this day, I would say that laughter, good fellowship, good will, and hard work are the little things that make the opportunities.

JOSEPH ARTHUR ABEL

COMMERCIAL

Home Room Basketball 1, 2, 3; Home Room Relay 1, 2.

Joe is jolly and practical. We're sure he hides his real ideas about a subject.

ARIETTA DOROTHY ALEXANDER

ACADEMIC

Home Room Secretary-Treasurer 1, 2; Honors for the year 1.

She is the proud possessor of a great kingdom of knowledge, yet in a surprisingly quiet way.

BARBARA MAE ATWOOD

COLLEGE

Salutatorian; Commuters' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Litamis Club 3, 4; Commuters' Play 3; Honors for the year 1, 2, 3; Senior Chorus.

In Barbara we had an outstanding commuter and a genius in English.

FRANCIS BAKER

COMMERCIAL AND DISTRIBUTIVE

Home Room Basketball 1, 2; Boys' State 3.

We admire that candidness, independence and generosity which are so characteristic of Francis.

MARSHALL HUGH BAKER

PRACTICAL ARTS

Commuters' Club 3, 4.

He will be second to none when there is work to be done.

Class Gift of 1941

In recent years teachers have discovered that supplementing the text books with radios, records, and moving pictures has been of great value to the students in their search for knowledge. In order to assist teachers in their work and help students in their learning, the Class of 1941 presents to Rutland High School a portable victrola for use in all classes. We hope it will be of value to everyone in the school.

MARY M. REGAN

President's Address

JEAN E. EDDY

FELLOW CLASSMATES, PARENTS AND FRIENDS:

Tonight you—our teachers, parents, and friends, have gathered here on this occasion which is most important to all of us: to us because tonight and Thursday night will represent the culmination of four years of high school, and to you because it is you who have helped us through these four years.

They have been four years of work and fun: work which has been essential and constructive; fun which may remain unexcelled.

In the many years ahead of us we will be faced with these same two factors. The main thing that we shall need is courage, for the work will not be easy in this confused world in which we live. But with determination, success will crown our efforts. So uncomplainingly, unflinchingly, and ever with resolute energy, let us build the ladder by which we rise.

“’Tis weary watching wave by wave,
And yet the tide sweeps onward.
We climb like corals grave by grave,
And pave a path that’s onward.
We’re beaten back in many a fray,
But newer strength we borrow.
For where the vanguard camps today
The rear shall rest tomorrow.”

BEVERLY M. WOODS

Class History

The panorama of events of our four years in Rutland High School has been made into a four-reel "March of Time" film entitled "The History of the Class of Forty-one."

As the film flashes on the screen, we catch sight of nearly two hundred Freshmen eagerly clamoring at the doors of Rutland High on a bright September morning of 1937. No, the film is not in technicolor; that glow is merely the greenness characteristic of "Freshies."

The scene changes and we see ourselves being royally entertained by the lofty Seniors at our Freshman Reception. Almost at once we are introduced to the activities of our school by becoming members of various clubs such as Bomarte, Forensic, and Freshman Dramatics.

Next we view our classmates pondering over the election of Freshman class leaders, and when the votes cast have been counted, we are congratulating Jean Eddy, President; Robert Ross, Vice President; and our Secretary-Treasurer, Leonard Wing.

"Time Marches On" and the next scene reveals us as Sophomores, and feeling quite high and mighty about it. Pictures of Jean Eddy, Arthur White, and John McGarry appear and we recall that they led our class as president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively, when we were Sophomores. That same year Diana Wood, Gloria Daley, and Jane Pratt were chosen to join the Cheer Leaders. All too quickly, one after another the views of our Sophomore year appear and disappear. "Paris Merry-Go-Round" was produced and the R. H. S. Band participated with the M. S. J. Band in a joint concert at the Memorial Armory.

Once again, "Time Marches On," and we find ourselves reviewing our never-to-be-forgotten Junior year. Scenes from "Sing a Song of College" next attract our attention and we enjoy anew the antics of Dick Seward and Vivian DePasquale.

The scene shifts and gives us a glimpse of the Junior Ring Committee selecting our class ring. Jane Pratt, Arthur White, and Clinton Fiske were our class officers that year. The next momentous occasion was the induction of Leonard Wing, Jean Eddy, Jane Pratt, and Beverly Woods into the National Honor Society. Apple blossoms and a flower garden formed an enchanting background for our super-successful Junior Prom where over two hundred danced to the music of the Green Collegians.

Class History

Then we gaze upon more than twenty of our classmates chosen for the Monitor Squad. There's Chris Wright in her snappy uniform. Remember when Chris was chosen a Drum Major? Look and you'll see Beverly Woods who was appointed Editor-in-Chief of the "Red and White." Finals came and went; vacation passed; "Time Marches On" and we find ourselves reviewing the events of our final year in high school.

The first scene is Chris, Bob, Roberta and Dick playing a few of the scenes in "Truth Takes a Holiday" which brought such plaudits from an enthusiastic audience. Jocelyn Bishop, George Preston, Beverly Woods, Gardner Hopwood, Vivian DePasquale, Helen Belock and Bob Harrington played their roles well to make it the success it proved to be.

In these passing events we next see Jean Eddy, Bob Ross, and Clinton Fiske as Senior Class Officers. Jane Pratt accepted the presidency of Student Council. Another scene showed us Bob Harrington, Editor, and Beverly Murray, Business Manager, laboring over the "Talisman." No wonder it was a success.

Suddenly the scene changes to Pico. It looms before us and we spy skiers zipping and zooming over the frozen way—namely, Caroline Landon, Gardner Hopwood, Betty Burns, Bob Cassin and Ken Clary, all active members of the ski team.

Then we get views of the hilarious all-boy revue, "Fair and Frivolous" where "muscle women" performed amid the roars of the audience. Next Olga Jakowlow and Barbara Atwood were named Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively. In the solemnity befitting the occasion the next few feet of film shows us Vivian DePasquale, Dick Seward, Bob Ross, Olga Jakowlow, Lillian Thompson being received in an impressive ceremony into the National Honor Society.

"Time Marches On," school nears its closing and as a climax to our years in R. H. S., Commencement Week arrives. Across the screen march our chairmen: Bob Ross, Baccalaureate; Dick Seward, who after a successful chairmanship of the Freshman Reception was made head of the Senior Reception Committee. Next, come Clinton Fiske, Chairman of Commencement; Vivian DePasquale, of Class Night; and Jack Martin, of the Class Picnic.

All too soon these events which not too long ago were part of our every day life are things of the past—History of the Class of Forty-one.

Ivy Oration

As we of the class of '41 plant this ivy, our thoughts are drawn irresistibly to the classes who have gone before us. They, too, planted ivy, symbolizing the importance of education to them, especially their high school training.

After a time the ivy becomes firmly rooted in the soil and launches itself on its climb toward the top, slowly making its way over and around the obstacles in its path, for few paths are without obstacles. Little by little it branches out, mingling with that planted in previous years, making the school more beautiful.

So may we have the strength to climb unceasingly on, doing our bit to make the world more beautiful, working with those who have preceded us, giving the best we have. Like the ivy our class may spread, yet we will always remain true to our Alma Mater, striving with the ivy to reach the top—success!

JOCELYN C. BISHOP

Class Song of 1941

Farewell to our by-gone school days,
Let classmates never part,
As on the future now we gaze,
With glad and happy hearts,
We wish to thank our teachers for
The knowledge we have gained
To look upon life's future more,
With interest long sustained.

For twelve long years we've strived and toiled,
And tried to forge ahead,
Sometimes it's been our will to shirk,
But we our studies did,
We've tried to make us better minds,
So helped in school affairs,
But we fell short a thousand times,
In climbing knowledge stairs.

CHORUS

Now we must say good-bye to our classrooms,
No more will we pass through their doors,
Leave our teachers and all underclassmen,
To see what the world holds in store,
But we will not forget your bright faces,
Nor your friendship so tried and true,
And we'll always remember the places,
And the time when those friendships grew.

Words by Clinton Fiske

Standing: Richard Seward, Gardner Hopwood, Robert Harrington, Robert Richardson, Jocelyn Bishop, Raymond Gragen, Beverly Woods.
Seated: George Preston, Vivian DePasquale, Christina Wright, Roberta Payne, Helen Belock.

Senior Play

The class of 1941 presented a farce entitled "Truth on a Holiday" on December fourth and sixth. It was given before capacity matinee and evening audiences who responded enthusiastically.

The leads were played by Christina Wright and Robert Richardson (Mr. and Mrs. Grant); and hilarious comedy characterizations were given by Richard Seward (Professor Prickett), and Roberta Payne (Hildegard), a maid who is a puzzle fiend and who finally lures the professor by her charms. Also taking comedy roles were Vivian DePasquale (Mimi Grant); Beverly Woods as the prominent clubwoman (Mrs. Barrett Barrett); George Preston (Mr. Goss), an interior decorator; and Ray Gragen as a political boss.

Providing romantic interest were Gardner Hopwood (Jimmy Long), fiance of Alice Grant, portrayed by Jocelyn Bishop; and Helen Belock (Louise Spencer), fiancée of Robert Harrington (Keith Grant).

Beverly Woods and Richard Seward were in charge of publicity; while Beverly Murray headed the ticket sales committee under the direction of the faculty adviser, Mr. Purdy.

Ushers were Jean Eddy, Arthur White, Clinton Fiske, Mary Jean Chapman, Katherine Eaton, Earl Jasmin, John Lyons, Ruth Sabin, and Carolyn Landon.

RUTH J. SABIN

Class Prophecy

It's true. I must have won the grand prize in the "Trip to Movieland" contest, for here I am on the train bound for Hollywood, California.

The drone of the wheels becomes more indistinct as the train rumbles on into the night. The ghostly train whistle can be heard in the distance, and all at once it seems that I have arrived in Hollywood. As I step from the platform, the crowd starts to cheer, and the band begins to play. Suddenly a pompous gentleman steps toward me and introducing himself as the Mayor of Hollywood, presents me with the golden key to the city. Coming out of the daze that this excitement had brought on I realized that this was none other than "Bob" Harrington. Maybe it was the "Ronald Coleman" mustache that deceived me.

For a minute I saw red, and discovered it was my old classmate, Mary Brislin, puffing out melodious notes on the tuba. Frank Hinds, Robert Cassin, Shiela Carroll, and Jimmy Dervin were also making considerable noise. I was hustled into an open car and to my surprise the chauffeur was Diana Woods. "Di" is finally getting paid for her taxi service.

The gatekeeper, Arthur McCarthy, the studio's "powerful-one-man-defense" against intruders, nodded his greetings.

We entered the studio where "Flaming Passion" was being produced. "Monk" Martin, the dashing film idol of a million American women, was in a clinch with lone "Lamarr" Ferrari.

Roberta Payne had a job doubling for Joan Davis, but Joan knew when she was licked. She resigned the next day.

Orel Blanchard has now achieved his ambition. He is in a symphony concert. He arranged the music on the racks for the players.

Ken Clary is still keeping fit by the "Daley" dozen.

Althea Fox, veteran of R. H. S. oratorical contests, is now a famous auctioneer in North Overshoe.

Class Prophecy

Richard Seward's famous profile has finally been immortalized in cement along with other stars. One of the "dead-end" kids, Floyd Webster, dropped a banana peel near a cement mixer.

Beverly Woods now owns a limousine, but poor "Bev" just can't get out of her old habit. Whenever she leaves the car, she covers the engine with an auto robe.

Chris Wright couldn't make Hollywood producers give her another contract; so she went to Europe. Immediately she was signed up in Paris. They appreciated her excellent use of French.

The stars were handled roughly in a rush for autographs and souvenirs. Joe Abel, David Holt, Betty Hale, and Iona Newton were among the violent brutes. Hollywood players are becoming nervous about appearing in public.

Kathryn Eaton has become famous for her chocolate fudge, but can't make a living. She keeps "Eaton" all her profits.

Leo Phair wanted to save money, and so he didn't buy any school books this year. He used the same ones over again.

Bea Kantor has a shop on Hollywood Boulevard selling umbrellas. Someone should tell her she can't make any money selling those, for Californians would rather get wet than admit it's raining.

George "Adrian" Preston is designing clothes for the best dressed stars.

Margaret Littler has achieved her goal as a fancy skater. She shovels the rink for Sonja Henie.

Barbara Atwood leads her chorus of Mary Routier, Ethel Grover, Dorothy Perry, and Vivian Dodge in hot rhythm numbers at the Cocoanut Grove.

Jack Battles is casting director, still following pretty legs.

Jocelyn Bishop has opened a hot dog stand in competition with the Brown Derby.

Marguerite Blanchard, a flower girl, sells her wares to play boy and man-about-town Henry "Speed" Lind.

Class Prophecy

Flash! Beverly Murray can throw away her sun tan cream, for she'll be getting the real McCoy on her expedition in Africa, hunting down rare "Buggas."

Marilyn Cady who is to be starred in "Here Comes the Rain," Southland's greatest epic since "Gone With the Wind," is reported to be holding out for an increase in salary. If this is true M. G. M. may put in her place Gene Noble, the glamorous peroxide blonde of "Fair and Frivolous."

Maurice Crossman was seen talking very seriously to Jack Benny. It seems Maurice wants to buy Jack's Maxwell. He thought it was about time to get a later model.

Leonard Wing had to go on a trip the other day. He told his son to be good while he was gone. Junior said he'd be good for a quarter. "Why, Son," said Leonard, "when I was your age I was good for nothing."

I found Carolyn Landon selling cigarettes in one of the night clubs. Let's hope her business doesn't go up in smoke.

Donald Bergstrom and his assistant, Fred Osgood use their skill to photograph the stars in flattering poses.

John Pappas is the studio's electrician. He got his experience disconnecting telephone wires before skipping school.

John Lyons is a famous hair dresser. His customers all say they want a wave like his. Marie Garrow and Dorothy Sharp are John's assistants.

Jasmin's Jamborie, strictly for jitterbugs, is the hit of the town. He has the cutest and hottest choruses around. Mary Lou Spaulding is his star vocalist. Her theme song is "Time on My Hands."

Mavis Bradder is a riding instructor. She got her early training on her pony.

MacLane Parkhurst is manager of the Chinese Theater. He learned the "ropes" at the Weston Playhouse.

Beverly Shaw has a daring wild animal act with her ferocious cats, Eleanor and Queenie.

Class Prophecy

Edith Christensen is in great demand around the studio since she set the world record in typing—15 words per minute.

Jean Maxwell is singing at the "Trocadero." Her theme song is "Just My Bill."

Bob Percey, R. H. S.'s three letter man is now industriously (?) working on the W. P. A. (still a three letter man).

Ruth Elliott and Jack Martin are sweeping Hollywood with their dance, "The Blitzkrieg Swing."

Vivian DePasquale tried to crash into Producer Bob Richardson's office the other day. His secretary, Mary Regan, informed her that he was engaged. Vivian looked indignant, "I don't want to marry him, I just want to see him," she said.

Fletcher Fifield is taking fencing lessons at college. He wants to become a scientific farmer.

Johnny McGarry applied for a job in the M. G. M. studio. "Didn't you see the sign 'NO HELP WANTED'," asked Director Bob Provan. "That's all right," said Johnny. "I won't be much help."

Franklin Walker is earning his living as a scissors grinder. He always did find things rather dull.

Lillian Thompson got tired of having her stories turned down by magazines. At last she's written something that will be accepted by the best magazine—a check for a year's subscription.

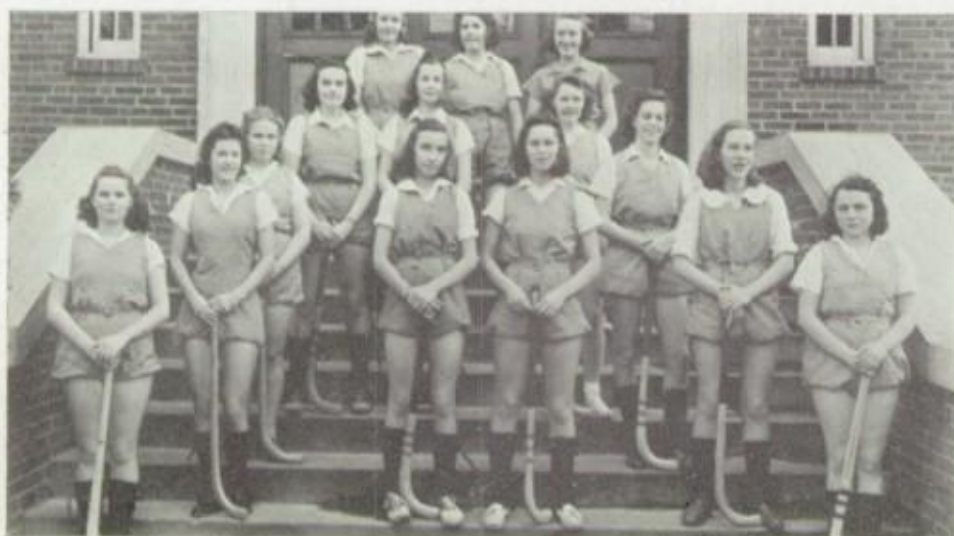

"Father" Barrett is seen bringing one of his numerous children to the casting office to double for Shirley Temple.

Janet Brown now owns a dress shop, her life's ambition. She can now have a new dress when ever she wants one.

Betty Burns, formerly skiing speed demon on the slopes of Pico, is now conducting turtle races every afternoon from four to six.

Mary Jean Chapman is still having a debate about love vs. career.

"Last stop! Hollywood California!" calls the conductor.

Class Will

BE IT KNOWN that the Class of 1941 being as sound in mind and body as can be expected in this day and age, does hereby declare its last will and testament. It bequeathes its most cherished possessions, inanimate of course, to the classes of 1942, -3, and -4 with permission to pawn them if they need money for their treasuries. We know how it is.

First in ability, and so first to be honored hereby, is Olga Jakowlow who wills her report card to the faculty (they may never see another one like it) with the omission of that one "B" which she exhibits to her classmates to prove she is human.

Bill Chioffi wills his rope, with which he skipped school so often, to posterity, if it needs one; and we doubt it, personally.

Provided it holds together, Maurice Crossman sorrowfully leaves his most prized possession, which he fondly and brazenly calls a car, to Joe Jones, wishing him good luck, and presenting him with an insurance policy, just in case.

Harriet Foye leaves, but not for long. Basketball is much too intriguing. She believes that the coach is responsible for all the team's wins; so she goes to the games to cheer for the coach solely.

Jane Pratt wills her trim riggings to the R. H. S. Yacht Club, which will soon be organized. With such equipment, they'll be sure to win all the races.

Deva Bolgioni wills a large quantity of sand paper to underclass girls so they can use it on the desks and chairs to cut down on stocking bills.

Beverly Murray leaves Mr. Bean this bit of information. "Angles are not the style anymore. Try curves for better results in marks. They don't conflict."

Being an "iron man" classifies him automatically as a sort of superman; so Bob Percey leaves us as bewildered as ever.

Earl Patch leaves to take a job packing bundles for Britain. They teach 'em how to knit down in Mount Holly.

ROBERTA R. PAYNE

Class Will

Margaret Wisell leaves her shoe taps to the bugler at Camp Blanding—generous to the last.

Dorothy Barber leaves us the memory of what a country girl can do to the city lads. They're moving to Northam.

George Cameron wills his two-pants suit to Jack Davine so he may lead a double life, undetected for a change.

Carolyn Flanders leaves a double chin to a two-faced junior.

Bob Ross leaves his picture in front of the Paramount and Grand as a drawing card.

Lorraine LeFrancois leaves her line to the Rutland Wet Wash. It never fails.

Claire Monette leaves to be an army hostess. She'll head south immediately if she can find sufficient dollar Bill's or Jack to youse guys who prefer slang. It goes without saying that Eddie will be the chauffeur.

Eleanor Steeves leaves for Sweden to find a good match.

Mary Routier leaves a truck load of flowers to Bob Foster because they can be up and still in bed. It's just Utopia for Bob.

Beverly Shaw leaves that wicked drive on the tennis court (along with one of Nigger's wild ones), and her smile to Carol Havens. '42 must carry on.

Gardner Hopwood leaves his magnetic personality, which draws all the girls, to the Lincoln Iron Works to speed up production for defense. Against what, we don't know.

June Smith leaves for Georgia. Not only is the sunset more beautiful, but the Don is more satisfying.

Emmy Lou Sheldon says, "Why leave? It suits me right where I am." School days, school days. Men, men. Where????

Chester Pinney leaves this bit of information to incoming Freshmen, to remember in their Sophomore year. "I'm just a piece of dandruff trying to get a-head."

Class Will

Marion "Junior" Thompson and Mary Manney will their memories of the Bardwell Hotel experiences to the incoming class of Shorthand II in a book entitled, "The Vice of Not Knowing Shorthand and Having to Take Dictation at a Convention." It contains remedies. Marilla Jasmin is another of its authors, and she has written a special chapter, "What to Do When You Enter a Supposed Convention Room and Discover It Is an Occupied Bedroom."

Barb Huffert wills her blazing green eyes to the cats of 1942. She can spare them, because she always draws all eyes wherever she goes.

Vivian DePasquale leaves her witty sarcasm, good humor, and dramatic ambitions to Berny Kazon, class cut-up of 1942.

Dick Seward leaves his acting, singing, and dancing abilities, plus his way with women, to any fortunate boy who can handle them. Dick figures he can acquire more and better talents. But what better talents can there be, we protest?

Betty Thayer has made her Will, but she figures on keeping it a while longer.

Leslie Lawton leaves in grandeur to shine—shoes.

Doris Johnson leaves a well-trained typewriter to any struggling first-year typist. Wouldn't mean poor Shirley Palsa, would she?

Rhea Elliott leaves as quietly as ever.

Ray Gragen leaves his speed to Vic Segale, prospective baseball star.

Lucille Bumps leaves R. H. S. with a smoother surface—a bump less.

Betty McKirryher leaves her giggles and cheerfulness to Donald Cassidy, freshman, in the hopes he'll cheer up.

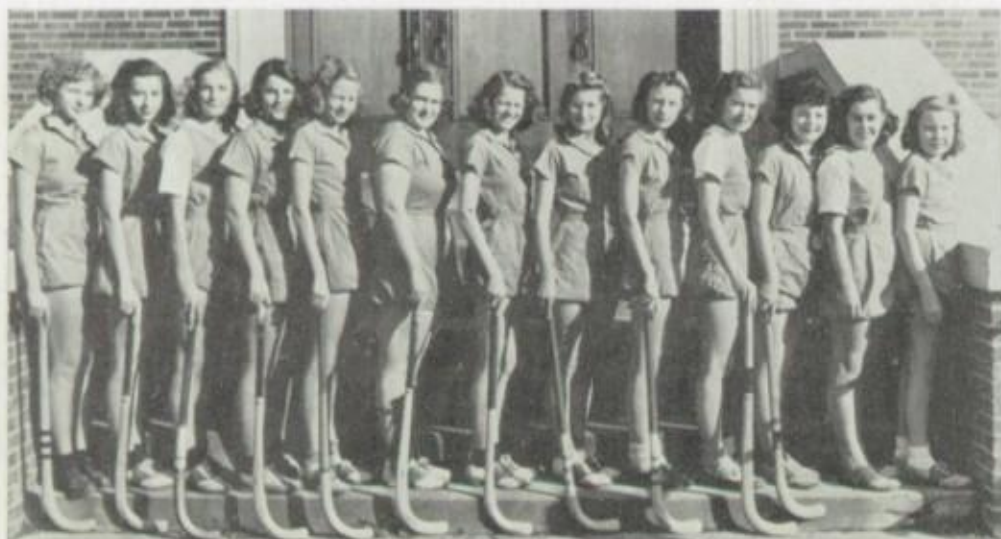

Carley Lester leaves Harlen to carry on.

Jean Long leaves, still wondering where "carrots" are in her class ring.

Jean Eddy leaves one well-used personality to anyone who wants it.

Joyce Hinckley leaves a doughnut to Charles Lorette.

Marjorie Parker leaves her bangs to Allen Merritt and Franny Clifford to use on the fourth of July. They're such a quiet couple.

Class Will

Carolyn Landon leaves her crutches to sister Joyce to use, unless she takes them to college with her.

Bob Harrington leaves a bunch of well-trained keys on an old piano to Sam Babbitt to play his classical music on.

John Lyons leaves his super-oratorical abilities to Mr. Purdy.

Robert Soule isn't leaving anything. He takes it all with him. "Never can tell what you'll meet up with outside," chirps Bob.

Eva Saunders wills her shoe strings to Joan Benham to help her catch Bobbie. But Charlotte Donahue keeps hers. One has to be careful with the draft and all.

Lois Hill wills her hidden talents to anyone who can find them.

Clinton Fiske leaves his enthusiasm, bass voice, and leadership qualities to the incoming cheer leaders, and more distinguished qualities they couldn't obtain.

John Heleba leaves a bottle of nail polish (Zombie) to brighten up the Freshman civics classes for Mr. Douglas.

Gladys Beaver and Beverly Keenan leave their taste for men to Nat Hyland and Maryellen Earle, and take the next train to Boston to find the B. U. Glee Club and that certain blonde.

Bob Richardson leaves, for good this time, but he isn't going far. It's just thirty-two miles to Manchester.

In witness whereof on this tenth day of June, 1941, we have set our hand and seal with the understanding that this will and testament is to stand against all attacks of time and changes of mind.

FRESHMEN BALLOTING

Band

The band enjoyed a full and active year under the musical direction of Mr. Clifford Van Iderstine. The band members, resplendent in bright, colorful uniforms marched and played at all football games held on Rutland High School Athletic Field. In October, 1940, members travelled to Burlington to participate in the Boys' Safety Patrol Convention. On occasions such as the Armistice Day Parade and the Vermont Sesquicentennial in Rutland, the Burlington Musical Festival, and on Memorial Day the band paraded and performed. Without uniform, the band played at the "Going Away" party for the National Guard and escorted them to the station.

Standing: Miss Lucy Doane, Faculty Adviser.

Bomarte Club

During the year the Bomarte Club attempted to divide its activities among art work, art education, and social festivities. At each meeting the members had opportunity for work, discussion, and sociability. Among the events enjoyed was a combination picnic and sketching party at the King's Chairs. At a Clay Party the members molded and spatted clay. Skating as well as sketching was a feature of Bomarte's outing at Mr. McKenzie's skating rink. At various times symposiums were held, mainly on the art of different countries and eras.

The purpose of the club, as agreed by the members, is to develop, substantiate, and promote an interest in art and its effect on our whole world, and to afford time and materials for the production of art to those who could not otherwise enjoy it.

The officers for this year were: President, Betty Burditt; Vice-president, Beth Helen McKenzie; Secretary, Carol Havens; and Treasurer, Mary Lee.

Camera Club

Another successful year, the sixth since its inception, has been completed by the Camera Club under the able direction of Mr. F. Harris Leavitt, Faculty Adviser. Numerous informal meetings characterized by the usual as well as the unusual projects were held. The members were urged to take pictures for the "Talisman." Early in the fall a club hike was enjoyed, and a little later a school picture contest was sponsored. Demonstrations of developing and printing, enlarging, use of the dark room were featured and proved to be instructive and entertaining. Discussions on photo books and current literature and special reports of experiences of the various members took up much of the club's time.

Commuters' Association

Again, an active year has been enjoyed by the Commuters' Association under the supervision of Miss Audrey St. Clair, assisted by Miss Helen Bailey and Miss Millicent Dixon. The annual dance featuring rounds and squares was held with "Welcome to Winter" as its theme. The members voted to give a one-year subscription for "Events" to the school library. During the course of the year the club acquired two basketballs, a volley ball, a net and an equipment cabinet for use during the noon-hour period. Since the first of the year the gymnasium has been used twice each week for noon time recreation. The ping-pong table is remaining as popular as ever with the club members after lunch.

The officers were: President, Fletcher Fifield; Vice-President, Barbara Clark; Secretary-Treasurer, Clinton Fiske.

Forensic Society

The 1940-41 Forensic Society of Rutland High School held regular meetings during the school year under the guidance of Faculty Adviser, Mrs. Mabel Morrill. The earlier meetings were concerned with speech exercises, articulation, pronunciation and vocabulary. Thereafter, several meetings were spent in preparation for the oratorical contest held in the school auditorium on February 14, 1941. After this event the members were occupied with debating preparation and practice.

During two solid-sessions candy sales were sponsored with great success. In the spring, a new project, that of teaching the art of speech to the first six grades in Rutland schools, was undertaken by the club members.

Freshman Dramatics

The Freshman Dramatic Club under their faculty adviser, Miss Carolyn Lee Allen, has discovered a fine group of promising actors and actresses.

The club chose the following members for officers: Robert Martin, President; Patricia Daley, Vice-President; and Jean Fisk, Secretary-Treasurer. The meetings held on the first and third Monday of each month, were devoted to play-readings, study of the construction of the stage, characterization, make-up, and various phases of the drama.

The purpose of the club is to discover and train dramatic talent, and to enable all to gain skill in self-expression.

The outstanding activity for the year was the presentation of a play for the Freshman Assembly in May.

Girls' Chorus

Under the guidance of Clifford Van Iderstine the Girls' Chorus has completed a busy and successful season. They performed at the Christmas Vesper service with a cantata, "Bethlehem" by Paul Bliss; they participated with the Boys' Glee Club in an interesting joint assembly; and they sang at the Tri-County Teachers' Convention.

Front Row: Patty Mayo, Elaine Giuffre, Mary Dolphin, Thelma Fisher, Aileen Mangan, Jean Austin, Margaret Jeannotte.
Second Row: Dorothy Fredette, Shirley Woodbury, Eletta Goyette, Patricia McCarthy, Betty Ann Carpenter, Barbara Clark, Zoe Porter.

 Fourth Row: Jack Barrett, Philip Curtis, Melwood O'Bryan, Bernard Mangan, Robert Ellison, Edward Stanley.
 Standing: Guido Musetti, Charles Lorette.

Boys' Chorus

A separate Boys' Chorus was organized this year under the able direction of Mr. Clifford Van Iderstine. This group attempted four part choral work. At all times their renditions were generously applauded and appreciated. At an assembly sponsored by the Boys' and Girls' Choruses they sang three songs in unison and "Liebestraum" in four parts. The all-boy Revue, "Fair and Frivolous" gave the boys still another opportunity to display their talent.

Home Economics Club

Have you ever wanted to improve your personality, and wished you knew how? If so—you should have become a member of the Home Economics Club. This year under the leadership of Miss Vera A. Perkins, this enterprising group studied the subject of personality development.

At the meetings, on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, the importance of proper posture, well modulated speech, gracious manners, and becoming apparel were discussed as being essential for a charming personality.

This club was organized to give those pupils who were unable to take Home Economics as a subject, an opportunity to take part in its activities. It gives those who do take it in class a chance to further their knowledge of domestic pursuits.

The following officers were elected: Patty Curtis, President; Betty Ellison, Vice-President; Sally Marsden, Secretary-Treasurer.

At Table: Olga Jakowlow, Barbara Atwood, Shirley Squires, Beatrice Kantor, June Smith, Mary Hleba, Katherine Eaton.
 Second Row: Helen Heleba, Martha Curtis, Constance Beaudette, Shirley Blair, Jean Rabidou, Mary Regan.
 Third Row: Miss Anna R. Maughan, Faculty Adviser, Deva Bolgioni, Dorothy Barber, Mary Ellen Murray.

Litamis Club

Under the direction of their faculty adviser, Miss Anna R. Maughan, the Litamis enjoyed a year full of achievement and progress. They elected Mary Margaret Regan, president; Kathryn Eaton, vice president; and Olga Jakowlow, secretary-treasurer. The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in good books, and to provide practical experience in library work.

Bi-monthly meetings were held. Book reviews were given by club members and by the faculty. Miss Cynthia Gorton of the Rutland Free Library presented a very interesting and instructive talk at one of the meetings.

With the proceeds of their after-school candy sales, the club was able to donate to the library a subscription to the "Readers' Guide" and a four-volume set of Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln—the War Years."

Mimes

The Mimes Club under the guidance of Mr. Clifford Van Iderstine has added another list of triumphs to its enviable history.

The officers elected were: President, Richard Seward; Vice President, Vivian DePasquale; and Secretary-Treasurer, Lorraine Johnson.

The meetings held on the first and third Mondays of each month comprised play-readings, make-up demonstrations, discussion of movie technique, and the possibility of a Mimes movie. Three supper meetings were held. Three one-act plays were presented as ten-cent assemblies. The plays were "A Bird's-Eye View of Mabel," "The Man in the Black Domino," and "Just Another Saturday Night."

Front Row: Betty Morse, Alice Rathbone, Lorraine Johnson, Richard Seward, Vivian DePasquale, Jane Pratt, Gloria Daley.
 Second Row: Julia Gerdon, Patricia Freeman, Janet Haseltine, Joyce Wood, Barbara Giddings, Roberta Payne, Bernice Smith, Beverly Woods.
 Third Row: Jean Leavitt, Shirley Taft, Ethel Spahn, Catherine Pappas, Mary Lee, Donald Hackel.

Front Row: Iona Ferrari, Ruth Sabin, Lillian Thompson, Elizabeth Thayer.
 Second Row: Beverly Woods, Mary Brislin, Jocelyn Bishop, Fletcher Fifield.
 Third Row: Ruth Elliott, Olga Jakowlow, Maurice Crossman, Donald Bergstrom.
 Fourth Row: Robert Cassin, Robert Ross, Head Monitor, Robert Harrington, Leonard Wing.
 Fifth Row: Henry Lind, Harold Fitzgerald, John McGarry, Miss Katherine Moran, Faculty Adviser.

Monitor Squad

Energetic and helpful are the words which best describe this year's Monitor Squad for these willing workers of R. H. S. with Robert Ross as Head Monitor, and under the supervision of Miss Katherine Moran, have been very active.

In addition to the responsibility of keeping halls and stairways free from confusion and congestion and maintaining general peace, the Monitor Squad has been busy editing a handbook for the benefit of in-coming Freshman. To finance this enterprise a very successful St. Patrick's Day Dance was sponsored by the Monitors.

In recognition of their dependability, leadership, and loyalty, the Student Council changed the point system so that each monitor will receive two points and the Head Monitor six points.

National Honor Society

No honor conferred by Rutland High School excels that represented by the National Honor Society. The members are chosen during their junior and senior years, from the upper third of their class, on a basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The Rutland branch of the society has just completed an active and progressive year, with Robert Percey, President; Jane Pratt, Vice President; Jean Eddy, Secretary; and Beverly Woods, Treasurer; and Leonard Wing; and Miss Marie Johnson, Faculty Adviser.

By selling candy at the school football and basketball games, and at the Southern Vermont Basketball Tournament enough money was raised to provide for subscriptions to several magazines and newspapers for the school library.

The outstanding event in the society's roster was the induction ceremony at an April assembly. Following an exposition of the four cardinal principles of the society by the present members, in an impressive candle-lighting ceremonial these students were initiated: Seniors—Vivian DePasquale, Iona Ferrari, Olga Jakowlow, Robert Ross, Richard Seward, Lillian Thompson. Juniors—Edna Beauchamp, Bernard Kazon, Mary Lee, Sally Marsden, Janet Perkins.

First Row: Jean Eddy, Beverly Woods, Robert Percey, Leonard Wing, Frances Clifford, Jane Pratt.
Standing: Miss Marie Johnson, Faculty Adviser, Olga Jakowlow, Sally Marsden, Mary Lee, Edna Beauchamp, Bernard Kazon, Richard Seward, Robert Ross, Lillian Thompson, Iona Ferrari, Vivian DePasquale, Janet Perkins.

 Second Row: Ione Ferrari, Richard Walbridge, Robert Barch, Barbara Giddings, Genevieve Frappier, Polly Woodfin.
 Third Row: Lillian Gallipeau, Wayne Rowell, Alfred Beauchamp, Robert Provan, Harold Emmons, James Phalen, Philip Hugny, Earl Manning.

Orchestra Members

Its fine spirit of cooperativeness has made possible the really fine showing of this year's Rutland High School Orchestra. Their more than creditable renditions for Senior Play, Vesper Service and Commencement as well as on various other occasions has been due, in no small part, to the painstaking efforts of Conductor Clifford Van Iderstine.

Red and White

With the Easter issue of April 9, 1941 in purple ink, the Red and White, a student newspaper at Rutland High School, completed its twelfth year as a weekly publication.

Under the editorship of Beverly Woods, the 1940-1941 staff published and distributed the usual twenty-five issues to its subscribers. For the benefit of Freshmen, free copies of the first issue of the year were given to all R. H. S.'ers on the opening day of school last fall. Hallowe'en, Thanksgiving, and Christmas also brought special numbers in colors.

An innovation came with the introduction of four columnists, Bernard Kazon, Vivian DePasquale, George Cameron, and Shirley Mae Murray, whose writing appeared each week beneath its author's cut.

A staff delegation attended the annual Vermont High School Editors' Conference at the University of Vermont, where the paper has been entered in the yearly state-wide school paper contest.

Front Row: Alice Rathbone, Shirley Palsa, Vivian Dodge, Vivian DePasquale, Beverly Shaw, Jean Maxwell, Diana Wood.
Second Row: Catherine Pappas, Janet Carder, Beatrice Kantor, Beverly Woods, Christina Wright, Ruth Sabin, Ruth Perry.
Third Row: Jerry Porter, Beverly Keenan, Constance Dubeau, Robert Alcott, Bernard Kazon, Anne Greene, Joyce Wood.
Back Row: Robert Cassin, Gardner Hopwood, George Preston, George Cameron, Donald Hackel, Robert Hughes, Marion Stevens.

Nearest Row: Joan Benham, Joyce Wood, Anna Greene, June Haseltine.
Second Row: Jane Pratt (standing), Barbara Harris, Sally Dorsey, Rose Phillips, Miles Ogden, Allan Merritt, Paul Hood, Jean Eddy.
Last Row: Patricia Wing, Shirley Palsa, Edna Beauchamp, Shirley Shangraw, Robert Ross, Alfred Beauchamp, Arthur White.
Standing: Kenneth Clary, Carlos Onion, Robert Alcott, Fritz Dubler.

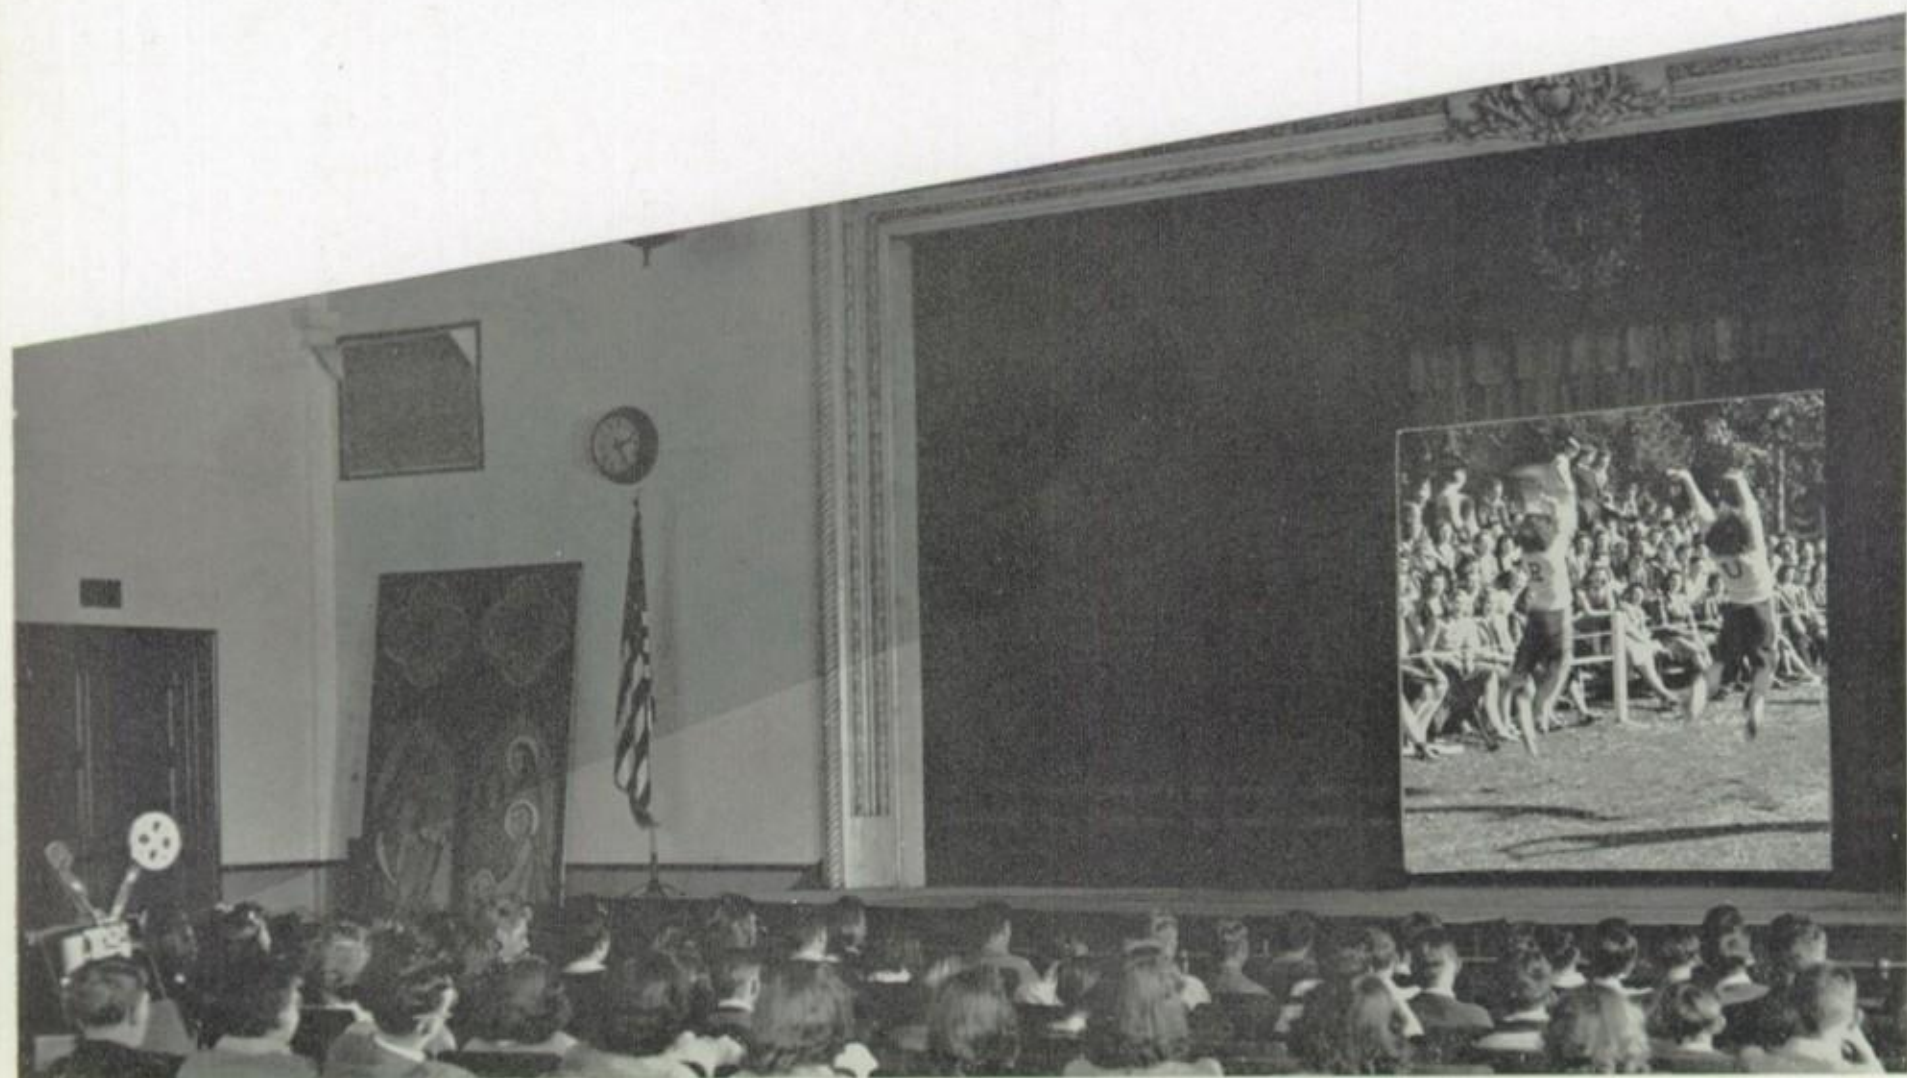

Student Council

This organization comprising home room presidents under the guiding hand of a new faculty adviser, Mr. Howard Douglas, has effected many beneficial changes in school government.

Various cases have been brought to its attention for judgment. The Monitor Squad felt their organization had been discriminated against in the point system. This matter upon due consideration was adjusted satisfactorily for all concerned. The Ski Club's case in reference to receiving letters also obtained favorable attention. Now, four points entitle a member to a letter.

The Student Council is the governing body of the school. A new plan for electing council officers for next year has been accepted as well as a decision to take charge of all balloting and counting in the future. The officers were: President, Jane Pratt; Vice President, Edna Beauchamp; and Secretary-Treasurer, Paul Hood.

Football

In 1940, the high school football team proved to be as powerful as the championship teams of the two preceding years. They failed to be State Champions by dropping a single game to Springfield.

They started the season by battling courageously against the out-of-state aggregation from Whitehall. The Raiders were defeated 9 to 0 by a series of "bad breaks." After this, the team swept aside Mount Saint Joseph and Windsor, but was downed by a second-half rally in the Springfield fray. Burlington and West Rutland were easy wins. Then in pouring rain, on sodden turf, Rutland and Brattleboro fought for the State Championship title. The game ended 0 to 0, giving the coveted title to Brattleboro who had been undefeated. The following week-end the team took an easy victory in the final game of the season with Spaulding at Barre.

The Seniors who will be lost by graduation are: Robert Percey, Gardner Hopwood, Raymond Gragen, Frank Eklund, William Chioffi, John Barrett, Leonard Wing, and Albert Martin.

The schedule:

Rutland	0	Whitehall	9	Rutland	25	Burlington	6
Rutland	20	M. S. J.	18	Rutland	21	West Rutland	0
Rutland	25	Windsor	0	Rutland	0	Brattleboro	0
Rutland	6	Springfield	13	Rutland	25	Spaulding	0

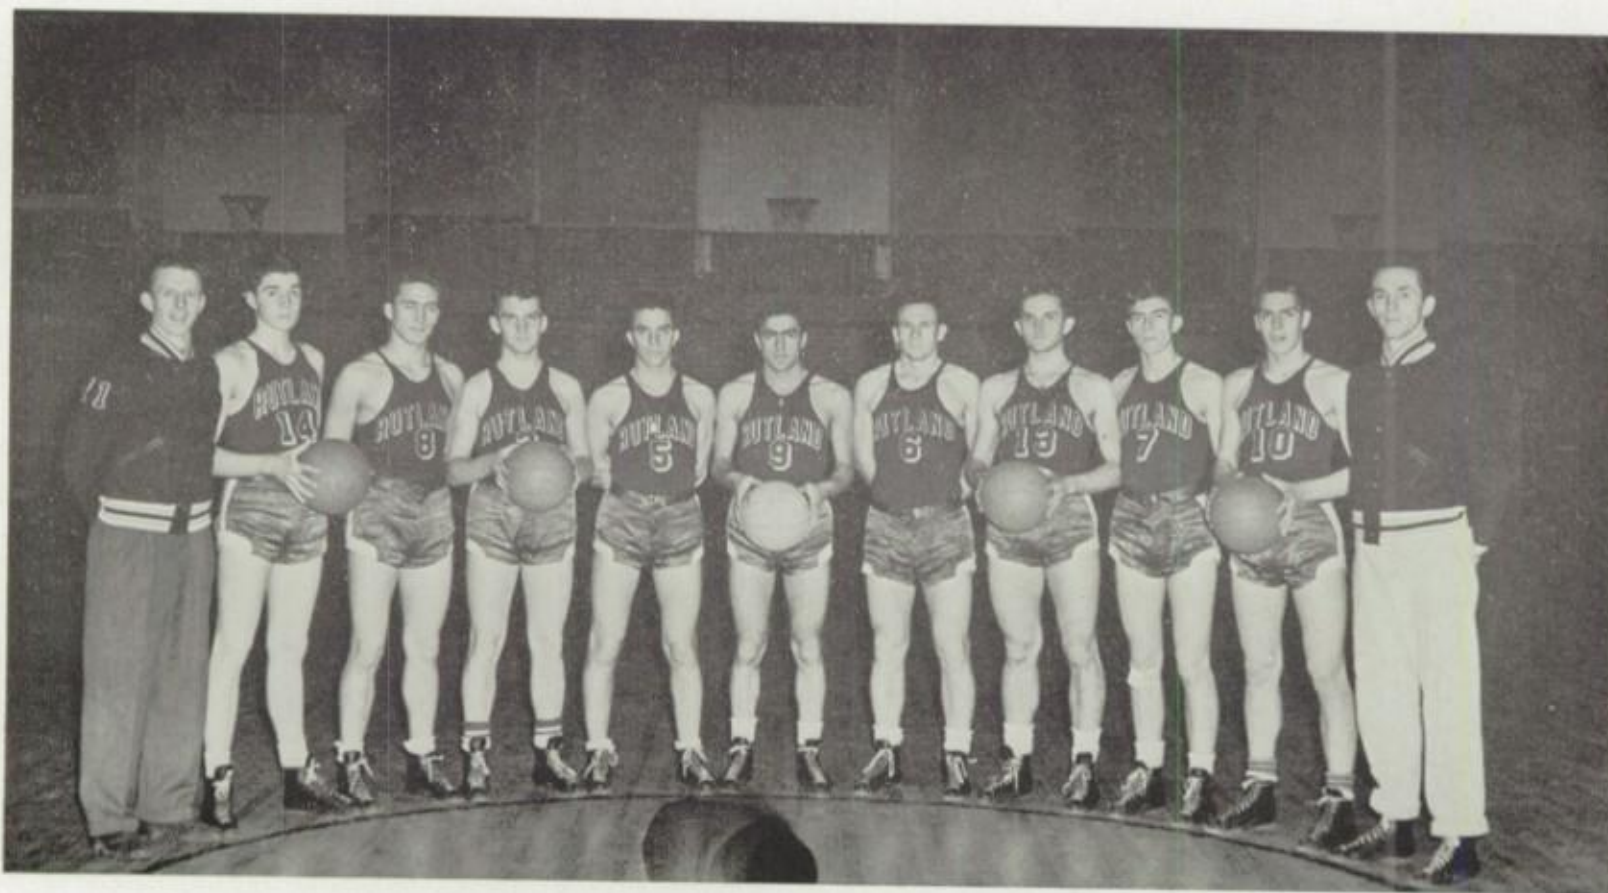

Varsity Basketball

This year's basketball team rounded out a hard-going season during 1940-41. The highlight of the campaign was the squad's defeating Proctor twice.

Although they had some set-backs, Coach Davis' quintet came in second in the Southern Vermont League. The Raiders lost to Randolph in the Southern Vermont Tournament; and they bowed to Springfield in an over-time period at the State Tournament.

The Squad will suffer the loss of Bob Percey, Captain; Gene Noble, "Monk" Martin, and John McGarry, who will be graduated.

Harold Mangan, Manager, John McGarry, Frank Eklund, Richard Fuller, Peter Bove, Alfred Flory, Albert Martin, Robert Percey, Captain, Gene Noble, Edwin Smatresk, Mr. John Davis, Coach.

Jayvee Basketball

This year's Jayvee Basketball team played a successful schedule of sixteen games winning twelve and losing four. The team finished second in the Marble Valley League, two losses to Springfield by one point, and to Mount St. Joseph by two points, were responsible for their loss of the league's championship.

Outstanding in the success of the team were the Sophomores of last year's crack freshman team—Ray Barker, Paul Hood, Dick Davine, Dom Ferraro and Al Merritt. A list of Juniors alternating with the sophomore group was composed of Bobby Rondeau, Rip Papineau, Bob Densmore, Thompson Martin, and Sophomore Walt Norton.

The team's record included wins over Whitehall (1), Springfield (1), Bellows Falls (2), West Rutland (2), Proctor (2), Windsor (2), Hartford (2), and losses to Mount Saint Joseph (2), Cathedral (1), and Springfield (1).

Rutland's total score was four hundred forty-five points vs. their opponents' two hundred seventy-two points.

The schedule:

Rutland	27	Whitehall	23	Rutland	27	West Rutland	14
Rutland	12	*Cathedral	21	Rutland	27	*West Rutland	10
Rutland	22	Windsor	18	Rutland	27	*Proctor	19
Rutland	20	*Bellows Falls	17	Rutland	37	*Hartford	14

Rutland	45	Hartford	12	Rutland	18	Springfield	19
Rutland	39	Proctor	14	Rutland	42	Bellows Falls	12
Rutland	22	M. S. J.	30	Rutland	22	*Windsor	14

Season's Record: .750%; 12 wins; 4 losses. League record: .785%; 11 wins; 3 losses. *Games away.

Freshman Basketball

A successful season with a record of sixteen wins and two losses has been the lot of this year's Freshman team. For the third time in four years, the Freshmen have been able to complete their season without a loss to a Freshman team. The boys this year have defeated eleven Freshman quintets, the most impressive win being a 56-13 win over Springfield. To make their success more nearly complete, they won the Freshman Championship at the annual West Rutland tournament. Their two defeats came at the hands of older and more experienced outside teams by the narrow margin of two and one points respectively.

Coach Leo Keefe carried twenty-two boys with the first ten boys making up the squad responsible for the above record. Outstanding in success of the team was the offensive work of Tommy O'Brien, Walt Murphy, Warren Hoadley and Ray LaFlamme, while Phil Pratico, Earl Fredette and Fred McGarry took good care of the defense. Alfred Beauchamp, Sam Terrill and Charlie Flanders were capable substitutes.

The team showed high scoring possibilities by ringing up 687 points to their opponents' 289 points.

Front Row: Managers Richard Brink, Donald Wood, Richard Lancour.

Second Row: Alfred Beauchamp, Robert LaFlamme, Philip Pratico, Warren Hoadley, Earl Fredette, Ray Murphy, Thomas O'Brien, Frederick McGarry.

Third Row: Joseph Kuder, Joseph Fredette, Howard Tyrell, Merritt Clifford, Paul Loyzelle.

 Second Row: Diana Wood, Mavis Bradder, Carolyn Landon.
 Third Row: Beverly Woods, Mary L. Spaulding, Betty Burns, Christine Wright.
 Fourth Row: Lillian Thompson, Caroline Flanders.

Field Hockey

When the call is issued for football candidates, the field hockey season begins. This year fifty-two enthusiastic girls made class teams after two months of practice and elimination under the direction of the new coach, Miss Dorothy Mellett. The inter-class tournament was won by the Seniors who defeated the three lower class teams. The championship team was awarded letters.

Girls' Leaders' Corps

The Girls' Leaders' Corps, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Mellett, faculty adviser and Physical Education instructor, is organized to aid in the activities of the Physical Education Department, to promote athletic activities, and to aid in the arrangement of these.

The members are chosen for leadership and scholarship as well as outstanding athletic ability in the various sports.

 Second Row: Eleanor Steeves, Mary Rutkowski, Mary L. Spaulding, Sally Marsden, Ruth Perry, Dorothy Sharp, Sally Dorsey.
 Last Row: Edna Beauchamp, Jane Pratt, Gloria Daley, Beverly Murray.

SKI CLUB

First Row: Miles Ogden, Mary J. Ogden, Mary Ellen Earle, Bernice Braislin, Louise Harmon, Christina Wright.
 Second Row: Mavis Bradder, Beverly Shaw, Betty Burns, Carolyn Landon.

SKI TEAM

Mr. Francis I. Bean, Faculty Adviser, Joseph Jones, Richard Pauli, Robert Cassin, Gardner Hopwood, Kenneth Clary, Jerry Porter, Stanley Burns.

Ski Club

The Ski Club program for the past year was varied and interesting. Ski classes were held at the Rutland Country Club every Thursday afternoon for several weeks. At one of the club meetings, movies of skiing at Pico taken by Dr. George Marshall were shown.

At the initial meeting Carolyn Landon was elected President; Miles Ogden, Vice President; and Jerry Porter, Secretary-Treasurer. A program committee consisting of Ruth Perry, Mary Lou Spaulding, and Joseph Jones was chosen.

The club sponsored a raffle to raise money. Four pairs of jumping skis, two pairs of cross-country skis, other ski equipment, several ski team trips, and a reel of moving picture film for ski pictures were financed as a result of the raffle.

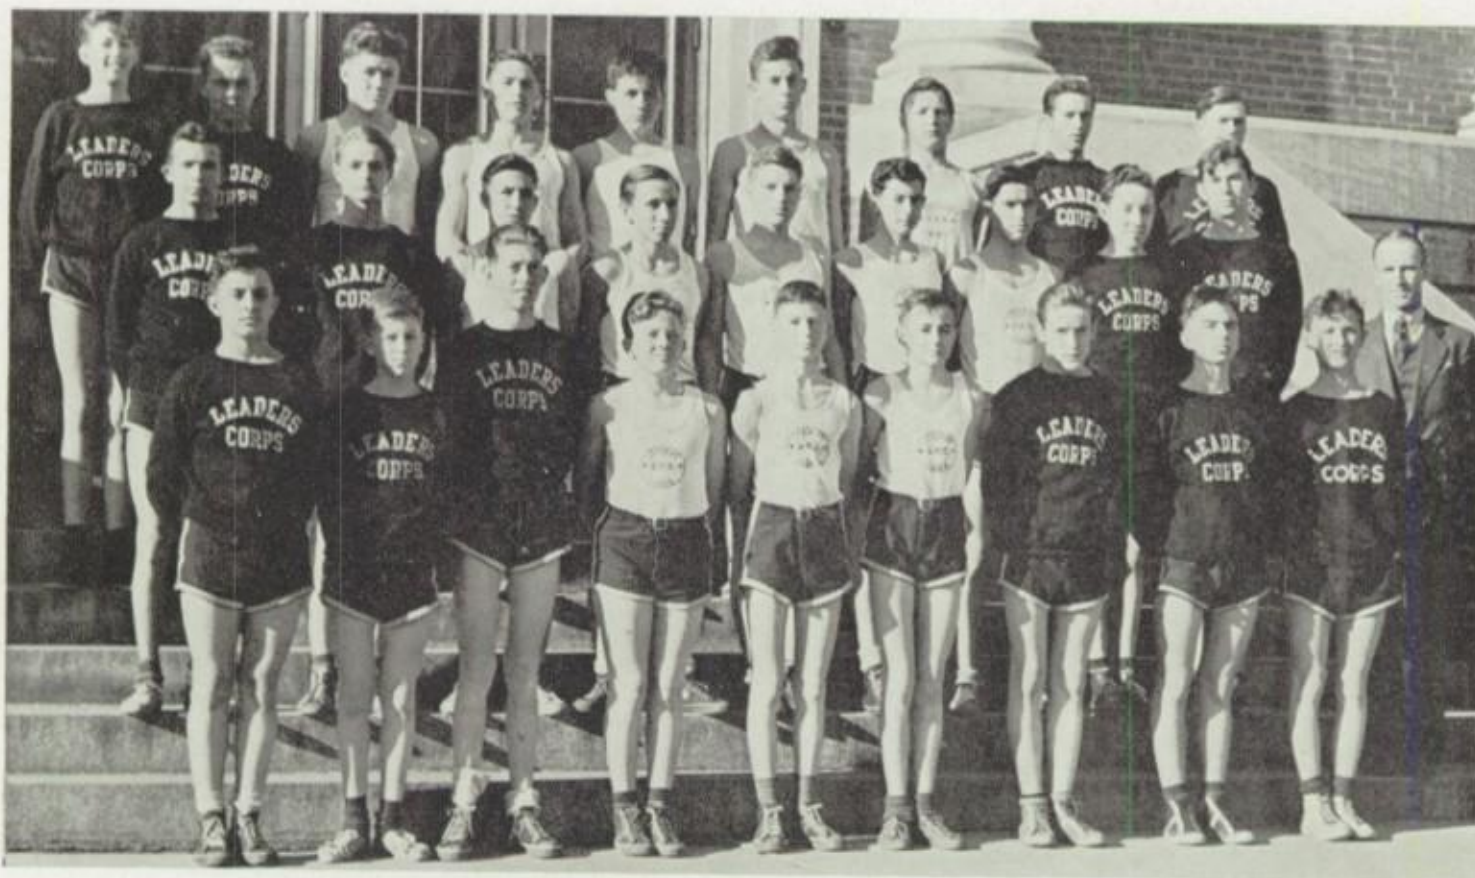

Boys' Leaders' Corps

The members of the Boys' Leaders' Corps have for the twelfth year under the supervision of Mr. Richard F. Hayden, Faculty Sponsor, had a most successful season. Members of the Corps have held twenty meetings in order to improve physical education class instruction and to better qualify themselves as team captains and officials for the regular program.

They officiated at one hundred and seventy-five basketball games, three hundred and eighty-five volley ball matches, acted as assistants for the thirty-six different apparatus squads, conducted a Pentathlon and numerous other activities during school time besides officiating at all Meldon School Basketball games, Freshman Home Room contests and assisting with the Meldon Leaders' Club once a week. Six members assisted with the Saturday Grade School Classes.

Their willingness to assume responsibility and sacrifice their personal enjoyment for the good of the majority has been appreciated by both the members of their squads and the director.

Front Row: Merritt Clifford, Joseph Ellison, Charles Sabourin, Donald Ross, Irving Adelman, John Gregory, Howard Dikeman, Philip Hugny, Frank Belock, Mr. Richard Hayden, Coach.
 Second Row: Harold Pippin, Reginald Alexander, Louis Fusco, Leo Phair, Earl Manning, Alfred Beauchamp, Richard Ross, Earl Clifford, Walter Hasbrook.

Second Row: Leslie Lawton, Manager; Raymond Johnson, Guido Musetti, Miles Ogden, Robert Martin, Donald Brown, Mr. F. Harris Leavitt, Coach.
Third Row: Thompson Martin, Gene Noble, Robert Alcott, Bernard Kazon, James Dervin, Robert Provan.

Tennis

Rutland High School's 1941 tennis campaign has opened with a promising future since the team of the previous year has reappeared. Four lettermen will battle for their school—Gene Noble, James Dervin, Robert Provan, and Robert Allcott. It would seem that this group will participate in most of the matches.

Coach Leavitt has welcomed new candidates to the squad whom he hopes to train for future use.

Track

Rutland High School Track Team enjoyed its usual season as well as its usual expectations. Many of the thirty-seven boys who appeared for practice early in the season fell by the wayside, so that only seventeen were active squad members. It is interesting to note that four Freshmen, four Sophomores, eight Juniors and one Senior actually competed in the meets. Three months of practice and competition gave the minority the necessary confidence to pile up points and win trophies. We salute those earnest, eager and ambitious boys who endured the rigors of the necessary daily routine.

The Schedule:

April 26	Rutland 59 2-3	Bellows Falls 59	Springfield 14 1-3
May 24	Rutland 63		Burlington 54
May 31	Southern Vermont District Meet at Rutland.
June 7	Vermont Interscholastic Championship.

 Second Row: Leo Phair, *Miles Pratico, Max Welch, *Joseph Hitzel, Robert Pinney, *Sam Hayward, Alfred Romano, James Kellogg, *George Tappan, *Phil Pratico, *Warren Hoadley, *Barry Mylott, *John Phillips.
 Third Row: *Edwin Sharp, Hiram Stratton, Sam Terrill, *Robert Mitchell, *Reginald Alexander, *Elio Fillipo, Alfred Cashman, Mr. Howard Douglas, Coach; Sam Babbitt, *Irving Adelman.
 Note: Names marked with * are those who were squad members.

Front Row: Earl Manning, Earl Sharrow, Benjamin Notte, Robert Ross, Allen Merritt, Colburn Aldrich, Charles Healy.
 Second Row: Dominic Ferraro, Leonard Wing, Joseph Jones, Ray Gragen, Mr. Lloyd Flaitz, Coach; Robert Percey, Earl Patch, Horace Brown.

Baseball

The Red Raider baseball squad of 1941 proved to be a fast-fielding, hard-hitting team.

Robert Ross, a veteran of the previous year, was number one on the pitching staff with Robert Percey and Earl Sharrow as relievers. Ray Gragen, Earl Patch, Horace Brown, Joseph Jones and Charles Healy composed the infield, with Robert Percey, Leonard Wing and Tony Notte in the field.

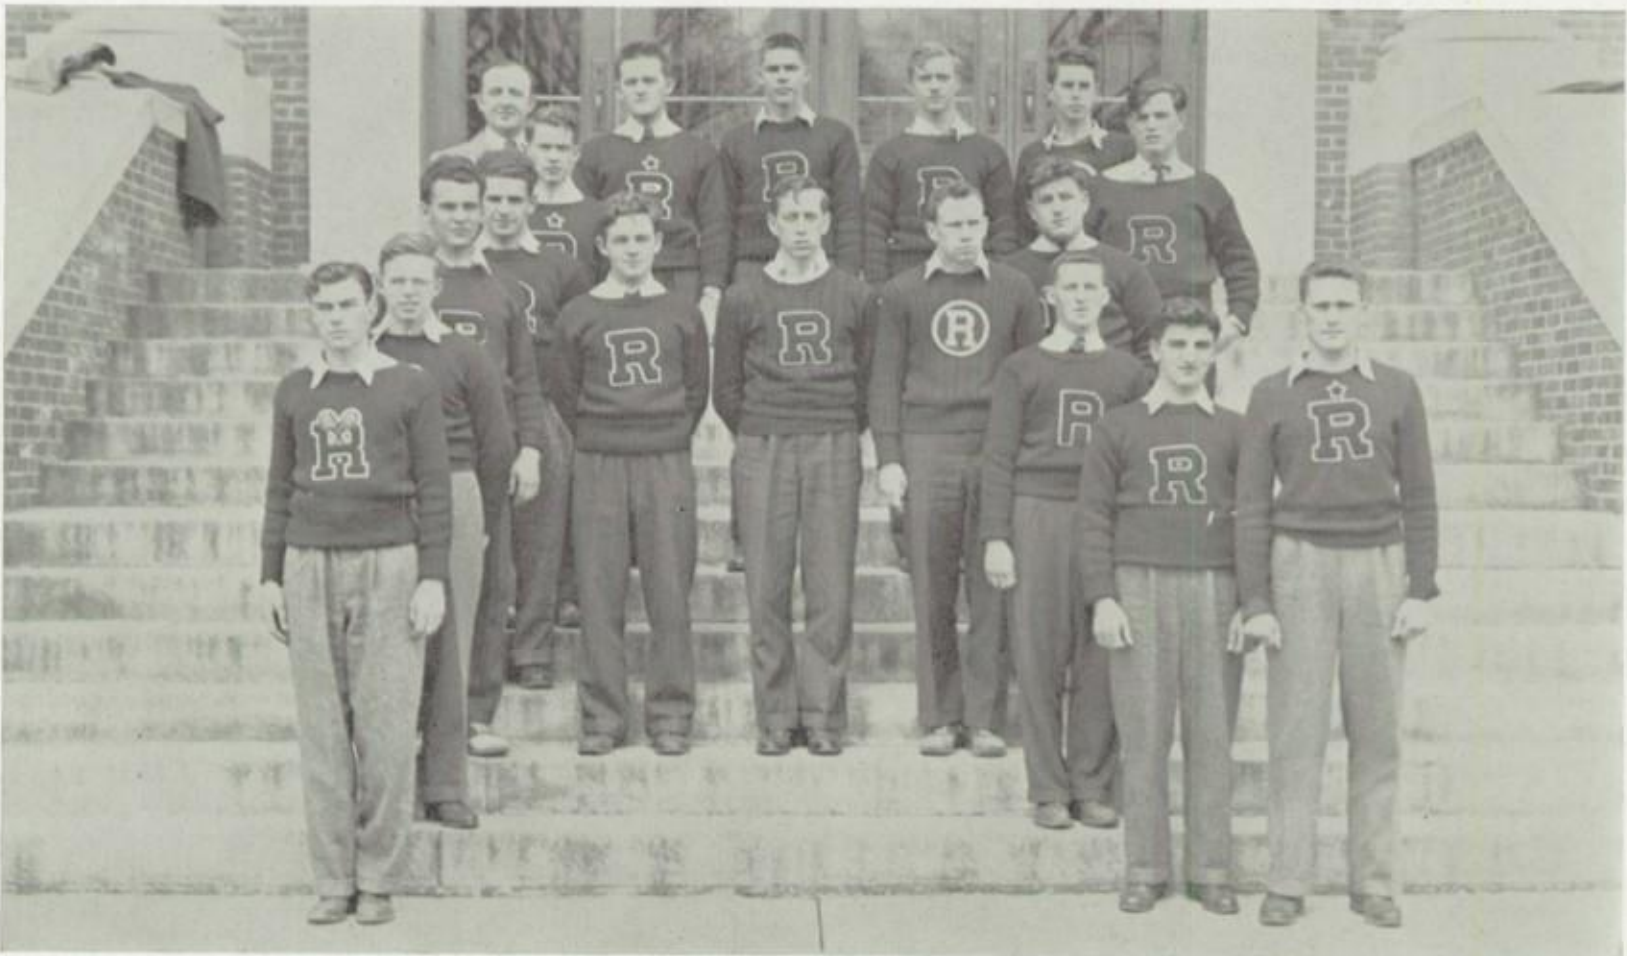

Varsity Club

The Varsity Club, under the leadership of Mr. Lloyd Flaitz, enjoyed a very constructive year. The support of a trophy case and the fight for the star system of awarding letters were their outstanding interests.

At the initial meeting, Gene Noble was elected President; Leonard Wing, Vice President; Richard Fuller, Secretary-Treasurer.

A dance was held under its auspices on April twenty-fifth at the High School and proved to be a very successful affair.

Amici

Arr. by C. Van Iderstine

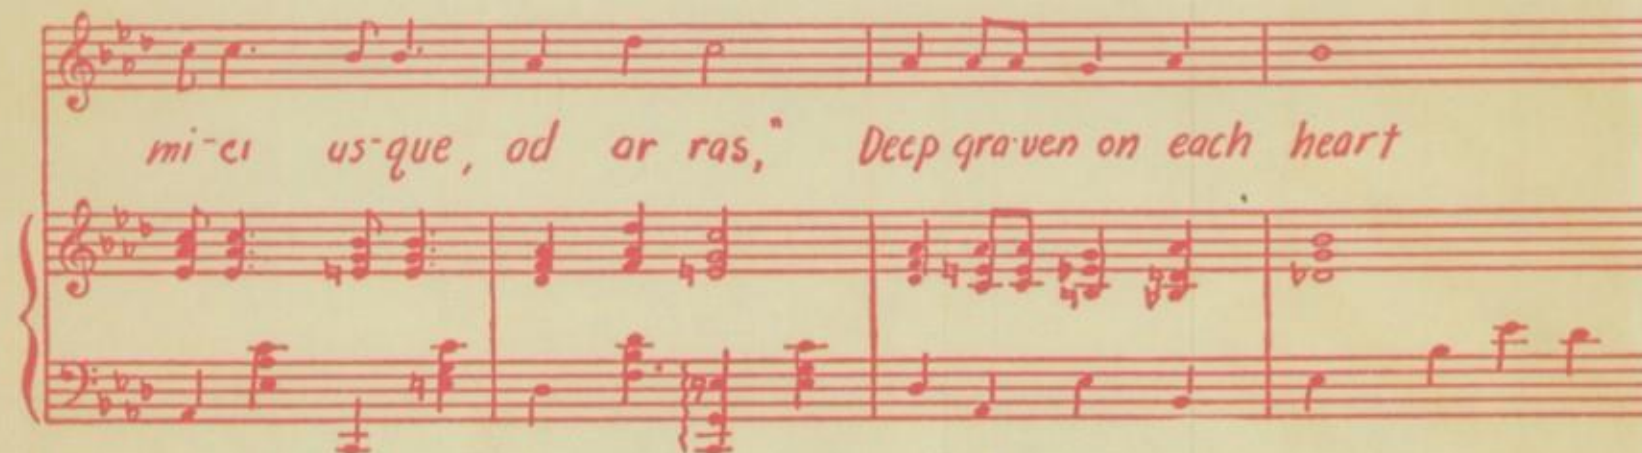

Our strong band can-never be bro-ken, Formed in Rut-land High

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Amici'. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment is in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

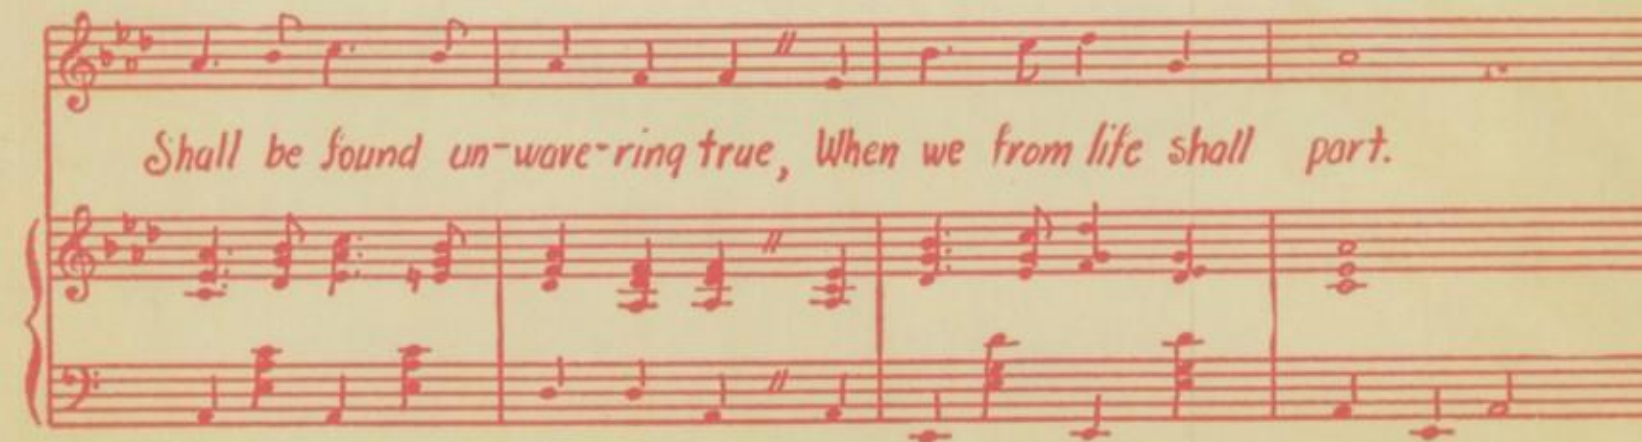

Far sur-pas sing wealth un-spo-ken, Seal'd by friend-ship's tie. "A-

The second system of musical notation. It continues the vocal and piano parts from the first system. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

mi-ci us-que, ad ar-ras," Deep gra-ven on each heart

The third system of musical notation. It continues the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Shall be found un-wave-ring true, When we from life shall part.

The fourth and final system of musical notation on this page. It concludes the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.
